This text has been prepared by Antalya DK Klinik Anonim Şirketi in the capacity of data controller within the scope of Article 10 of the Law on the Protection of Personal Data No. 6698 (Law) and the Communiqué on the Procedures and Principles to be Followed in the Fulfillment of the Obligation to Inform. The purpose of this Cookie Privacy Notice is to provide you with information about what types of cookies we use for what purposes and how you can manage these cookies regarding the processing of personal data obtained automatically through the placement of cookies used on our website on your device. For cookies other than mandatory cookies that we use on our website, the explicit consent of the users is obtained and the opportunity to change their consent at any time is provided. Users can see the types of cookies used on our website through the cookie management panel and set their preferences with the "I accept" or "reject all" options for all cookies other than Mandatory Cookies. Again, users can change their preferences at any time through this panel. We use certain technologies ("Cookies") such as cookies, pixels, GIFs, etc., to improve your experience during your use or visit to all our online or offline channels (all mentioned channels are collectively referred to as the "Platform") that we make available to you in the digital environment. Thanks to cookies, the servers of our websites and social media accounts recognize your devices and enable you to remember, for example, your language preferences, your saved username, and to manage the traffic on the site. Cookies also help us to improve our software to provide you with a better experience by analyzing the number and audience of visitors to our website or social media accounts, and if you prefer, to personalize the advertisements you view during your internet use.

The use of these technologies is carried out in accordance with the legislation we are subject to, especially the Law on the Protection of Personal Data No. 6698 ("KVK Law").

The purpose of this Cookie Privacy Notice is to inform you about the processing of personal data through technologies such as Cookies used during the visit of the Platform. In this text, we would like to explain to you what types of Cookies the Platform uses for what purposes and how you can control these Cookies.

As a company, we may stop using Cookies on the Platform, change their types or functions, or add new cookies to our site and application. Any changes made on the current Cookie Clarification Text will become effective upon being published on the Platform. You can find the date of the last update at the end of the text.

Method and Legal Reason for Collecting Personal Data

Your collected personal data will be processed for the following purposes ("Purposes") within the personal data processing conditions and purposes specified in Article 5 of the Law. Cookies are used for different purposes in the electronic environment within the scope of your visit to the platform or due to your use. Depending on the type of relevant cookie used, the purposes of data processing and the data processing requirement within the scope of the Law on which we rely when using the relevant cookie may vary. In addition to cookies, if you communicate with our social media accounts belonging to Antalya DK Klinik Anonim Şirketi, your personal data can be obtained through social media channels and processed by combining them with the data collected through cookies.

Mandatory Cookies

Mandatory cookies are cookies that are placed on your device during your viewing of the Platform and are necessary for the proper functioning of the online services offered. For the data processing activities we carry out during the use of these cookies, we are based on the data processing condition "It is necessary to process the personal data of the parties to the contract, provided that it is directly related to the establishment or performance of a contract" and "It is clearly stipulated in the laws" within the scope of Article 5 of the Law.

Functional Cookies

Functional cookies are cookies used for personalization and remembering preferences used on our Platform. These cookies are used to provide functionality other than mandatory cookies. For the data processing activities we carry out during the use of these cookies, we rely on your "explicit consent" as a data processing condition within the scope of Article 5 of the Law.

Performance and Analytics Cookies

Performance cookies allow us to track and analyze the number of people viewing the Platform and Platform traffic. Thanks to these cookies, we can obtain information such as which areas on the Platform are visited most frequently or infrequently, and we can optimize the traffic of the Platform. For the data processing activities we carry out during the use of these cookies, we rely on your "explicit consent" as a data processing condition within the scope of Article 5 of the Law.

Marketing and Advertising Cookies

Marketing and advertising cookies are used to promote personalized products and services to you on the Platform or in channels other than the Platform in accordance with your viewing history and visitor profile. For example, displaying advertisements related to the interests of visitors on the pages and products viewed by the visitors. These advertisements can be displayed through the digital channels managed by the Company, or we may cooperate to advertise and promote on or outside our site in 3rd party channels. For example, cookies can be used to track whether you have clicked on an advertisement you have seen on our site, and if you have benefited from the service on the site directed by that advertisement after the advertisement has attracted your attention. Marketing and advertising cookies also enable the collection of information about your social media usage. For example, cookies can be used to use the information of your Facebook/Twitter accounts to create personalized ads or conduct market research.

In cases where the data processing activities we carry out during the use of these cookies are related to marketing and advertising activities carried out through targeting and profiling, we rely on your "explicit consent" as a condition of data processing within the scope of Article 5 of the Law.

Third-Party Websites and Apps

Our program partners may also choose to share information obtained from cookies placed on their websites and applications with the Company. The Company cannot access any cookies other than the cookies placed on the websites and applications of our program partners and included in the Cookies Used on the Platform table below. Information shared by Program partners and affiliates or collected by the Company from the websites and applications of Program partners and affiliates may be combined with other information that you share with the Company and that the Company receives about you. These cookies serve the same purposes as the cookies placed on the Company's Platform and these purposes; personalizing content (including ads), measuring ads, creating analytics, and providing a safer experience.

Although cookies placed on third-party websites and applications are included in the cookie policies of third parties, you can get detailed information about which cookies our Program partners prefer to share with the Company the information obtained through cookies placed on their own websites and applications in the table titled Third Party Websites and Applications at the bottom of the table of cookies used on the Platform below.

In addition, if you have given permission for commercial electronic messages, your personal data is processed for the purpose of presenting and promoting the products and services of the Program Partners in a general and customized way so that you can benefit from the products and services of the Program members with special advantages.

Cookies in terms of the time they are stored

Persistent Cookies

These are cookies that persist on the person's computer until a certain date or until they are deleted by the user. These cookies are mostly used to measure users' site movements and preferences. For the data processing activities we carry out during the use of these cookies, we are based on the data processing condition that "Data processing is mandatory for the legitimate interests of the data controller, provided that it does not harm the fundamental rights and freedoms of the person concerned." within the scope of Article 5 of the Law

Session Cookies

These cookies are used to divide the user's visit into sessions. The cookie is deleted when the user closes the web page he is visiting or remains inactive for a certain period of time. Targeting and tracking cookies are used on the Website to help third parties provide services, especially advertising services, and to increase the effectiveness of these services. These cookies can remember the web pages and sites you visit and collect personal data, in particular the IP address of the user's device. The Website uses both first-party and third-party cookies to collect information, remember your interests and demographic data, and serve you targeted advertising, improve ads, determine the number of visits and ad impressions, other uses of ad services, and the ratio between those ad impressions and interactions with ad services. Website; It makes use of social plugins that provide links to social networks such as Facebook and LinkedIn. When you visit the Website and use these plug-ins, the Website connects directly to the server of the selected social network. The content offered by the plugin is then transmitted directly from social networks to your web browser and added to the website you are visiting. In this way, the relevant social network can access and process your data and combine it with the data of your account in the relevant social network. For the data processing activities we carry out during the use of these cookies, we rely on your "explicit consent" as a data processing condition within the scope of Article 5 of the Law.
